

Flyers

A Personal invitation to join Scouting is the best way for families to receive information about how to join Scouting. A flyer alone does not constitute an invitation, but are incredibly effective when combined with Youth Talks, and other effective methods of communication. Hot off the presses this item is a fabulous invitation to your Joining Event. Flyers are best delivered 3-5 days before your joining event.

What You're Going To Need:

- Flyers with joining event date

How You're Going To Organize This:

Contact your District Executive to see what their plan for flyer Distribution to the local schools are; many times families in our Packs have good relationships with our schools and can deliver flyer to our schools with the best chances for proper distribution.

Your District Executive can also provide you with additional flyers to be distributed to other venues around your Pack Joining Event location.
